A change of environment.
A change of pace.
A chance to thrive.

Job Corps 101

- FREE to eligible young people
- A different kind of learning environment to help students thrive
- Hands-on training, employability skills and industry-recognized credentials
- Opportunities for personal growth and leadership through extracurricular activities like SGA and sports
- Post-graduation support in finding a job, higher education and a place to live

Not all students follow the same path. Some need different options.

At Job Corps, students gain the knowledge, skills and credentials to start meaningful careers. All alongside a community that supports them. And the best part? It's all free.

When students turn to you for guidance, turn to Job Corps.
